“Château Cazal Viel has been the cradle of the Miquel family for five generations. I am determined to continue with my father’s work and to produce unique wines.”

[LAURENT MIQUEL]

Expertise

Laurent Miquel truly worships Syrah, to the extent of naming his dog after the top Languedoc grape! On his Saint Chinian family estates, he has brought the best out of Syrah but also out of Viognier and Grenache grapes. “My wines are the incarnation of the new wave in Southern France, he explains. They combine the fruitiness of New World wines with the elegance of the old continent.” Laurent Miquel’s wines earn worldwide adulation.
